Tropical Evil—Eric Saxon

Nathan, a college football star and heir to a multi-billion dollar fortune, receives the gift of a lifetime: a 9.2 million dollar yacht. He takes his glorious yacht 'Pegasus' for a short excursion to entertain a few friends and guests, but what was to be an exciting outing over the Atlantic turns to tragedy as 'Pegasus' goes down in flames during a mysterious storm. After surviving the treacherous seas and man-eating sharks, Nathan and nine of his fellow shipwrecked comrades become castaways on a deserted island.

Price: $13.95

Order #: ES001

Type: Fiction—Adventure

ISBN: 0-97857-287-4

Visit—www.tropicalevil.com and get the full experience of being along for the suspenseful thrills.

Rocky Traverse—Jerry S. Dixon

Chuck Sheley, editor of the National Smokejumper Association Magazine reported, "Jerry Dixon has taken us to every wilderness and mountaintop in the country." This author is one of the few jumpers in the 65-year history of smokejumping to have survived a double malfunction. He has also been a Yukon River ranger, cabin builder, philosopher, biologist, an ultra-marathoner, climber, kayaker, and an extreme skier...is it any wonder he had time to write? This book is now enjoying its 3rd print and looks forward to many more.

Price: $10.95

Order #: JD001

Type: Historical/Travel/Adv

ISBN 1-59453-781-x

A journey across the Rocky Mountains on the Trail of the Corps of Discovery. Adventures galore. Visit Jerry's site: <http://www.wilderness.org/Library/newbooks.cfm>

Wild for Alaska—Jerry S. Dixon

Join the author on an unbelievable journey through the last great wilderness of the North American Continent. The story spans four decades of relentless pursuit of adventures, dangers, and excitement few men ever really experience. Illustrated with 40 years worth of drawings drawn by Jerry and photographs taken by the author, Jerry Dixon gives the reader a rare insight into a world seldom seen. Climb majestic Mt. Denali, the highest mountain peak on the North American Continent and see and feel what many others have died trying to accomplish.

Price: $11.00

Order #: JD002

Type: Historical/Travel/Adv

ISBN 978-0-9793944-4-1

This diary of not only Jerry's life but other extreme sportiest as well is one that will not only take you across Alaska and then some; it will take you into the hearts of great men and women who know what it is like to enjoy the wilds.

Across—Larry Lindsay

Larry Lindsay, a retired school teacher, has bicycled across the United States twice. One trip began in Seattle, Washington and another trip began in California with a group of ten. Mr. Lindsay also enjoys backpacking, canoeing, scuba diving, and winter camping. When the author isn't enjoying the outdoors, he is resting up to go again.

Price: $17.95

Order #: LL001

Type: Fiction—Sports

ISBN 1-59453-969-3

By reading "Across" you will learn more about the United States as well as how adventuresome the bicycling trips can be.