Intricate and complicated major file reviews are included in Package #3, such as tricky manuscripts with graphs, tables, math, or images. Marketing services are included and consist of announcing your book on: LinkedIn, Facebook, and Twitter if you are not part of these social medias we will set you up and man your new area for at least 30 days to help you build a selling title (4 hrs.)

Not every customer will need or want each of the same services with regard to their E-Book needs. Therefore, we at Entry Way Publishing will complete a structured contract for you. Our aim is to be able to help authors sell as many copies of their books as possible—whether they be printed or downloads in E-Book formats. Want more? We can take care of all your needs because our staff's competency comes from being in the 'book business' well over twenty-five years now. Simply let us know what your needs are and a package will be sent to you to encompass those needs. E-Book retailers grow daily—and since we are always 'awake' we will find them for you and your products. Current sites include: www.Story-E-Books.com, Amazon Kindle, Barnes and Noble (and Nook color) as well as from www.bookiejar.com.
