Without authors...there would be very little need for readers.
Without readers...books could possibly end up lost and forgotten.

In the fast-moving world of 2011,
Digi-Tall Media
is committed to doing everything possible to make certain that authors meet authors
readers keep reading books continue to be printed and that we exceed in the new e-Book world's standards of today.

One way we are doing this is by introducing our Event Planner and Public Relations Assistant, Holly Bjornsen.

Holly is our representative for the Western Division of Digi-Tall Media and will be attending events in The greater Denver area.
She will be explaining how we can be helpful to you as an author and will provide you with information about our company.

Please consider us as an additional/new distributor for your book and/or e-Book
